DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office Action is taken in regards to examination of this instant application.

Claims 1-36 are present for examination.

2. The specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1-2 and 19-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by US 20020188657.

With respect to claims 1 and 19-20, Traversat teaches a plurality of file storage nodes that are distributed on and communicate peer-to-peer over a network (plurality of peer nodes configured to implement a peer-to-peer environment on a network according to a peer-to-peer platform) [abstract; Fig. 13-14 and 19-20]; a storage coordinator (peer-to-peer platform/application layer) that manages file storage on the plurality of file storage nodes [paragraph 0035], the storage coordinator designating selected groups of nodes (peer groups 210A, 210B) within the plurality of files storage nodes [paragraph 0031] and directing the nodes into a given group to communicate peer-to-peer to replicate associated group files [paragraphs 0038; 0097; 0133].

With respect to claims 2 and 21, Traversat teaches an administrative console (a discovery service in the core peer-to-peer platform) that administers policies set by an administrator, providing policies to the storage coordinator [paragraph 00267] and the storage coordinator designating the groups in accordance with the policies provided by the administrative console [paragraphs 0123-0124].

5. Claims 1-7, 15, 19-26, and 34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by US 2003/0145086 (O'Reilly).

With respect to claims 1 and 19-20, O'Reilly teaches a plurality of file storage nodes that are distributed on and communicate peer-to-peer over a network (Peer-Based Storage Network) [abstract; Fig. 14-15; paragraph 41]; a storage coordinator (dynamic allocation controller DAC) that manages file storage on the plurality of file storage nodes (DAC controls the allocation of segments of the storage pool) [p. 0049], the storage coordinator designating selected groups of nodes within the plurality of files storage nodes (storage pools) [P. 0050] and directing the nodes into a given group to communicate peer-to-peer to replicate associated group files [paragraph 0042; P. 0085-0089].

With respect to claims 2 and 21, O'Reilly teaches an administrative console (policy administration interface (PAI)) that administers policies set by an administrator (system administrator), providing policies to the storage coordinator [P. 0058-0059; 0049; 0068] and the storage coordinator designating the groups in accordance with the policies provided by the administrative console [P. 0049; 0050].

With respect to claims 3 and 22, O'Reilly teaches the administrative console setting policies that determine a predetermined number of minimum number of storage nodes in the group (the addition or subtraction/failure of storage elements in a storage pool as the policy permits increasing number of elements) [P. 0050] and the storage coordinator selecting at least the predetermined minimum number of nodes for each of the respective groups [P. 0050].

With respect to claims 4 and 23, O'Reilly teaches the administrative console providing to the storage coordinator policies that determine location of at least one of the nodes in a group relative to the other nodes in the group (tracking or locating agent and periodically updates allocation (addition or failure/failure of storage elements)) and the storage coordinator selecting the nodes for the respective groups in accordance with the applicable policies concerning location [P. 0055].

With respect to claims 5 and 24, O'Reilly teaches the storage coordinator being a member of a cluster of storage coordinators that communicate peer-to-peer and share the managing of the file storage on the plurality of file storage nodes (a primary or active DAC and a backup DAC) [P. 0050].

With respect to claims 6-7 and 25-26, O'Reilly teaches a plurality of remote storage nodes that communicate peer-to-peer, remote storage coordinator that designate selected groups of nodes with administrative console providing policies to govern the operation of the remote storage coordinator [P. 50].

With respect to claims 15 and 34, O'Reilly teaches administrative console providing policies that relate to one or more of time constraints, interval constraints, and bandwidth constraints [P. 0059-0059].

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 8-14, 16-18, 27-33, and 35-36 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

US 20020099914 (Matsunami et al) teaching method of creating a storage area & storage device.

US 20030079018 (Lolayekar et al) teaching load balancing in a storage network.
